In the spring of 1912 he came back to Paw Paw and remained until about a year ago, when he entered the employ of the Monroe Motor company of Pontiac. On the 7th, of last April he was united in marriage with Mrs. Nettie Cross. The auto company having opened a branch office in Milwaukee, sent him there as the Superintendent. During the State Fair Auto Races there last Sunday, while endeavoring to assist in removing a wrecked car from the track, he with five other men, received serious injuries. His being fatal. He died August 5th, aged thirty-one years, 1 month and seven days.

Carl was a kind and genial man and having lived and worked in many cities and towns in the United States he had made many friends and acquaintances. He leaves a wife, a father, two brothers and two sisters to mourn his loss.

MARY ANN CRANDALL.

Mrs. Mary Ann Crandall was the daughter of John and Caroline Bell Law of Toronto, Ontario. She was born November 17th, 1843. Her academic and musical education was received chiefly at Oshawa and Dundas, Ontario. Her unusual fondness for music was derived from her father who was an artist at the keyboard and on the violin. She began to play when she was but nine years old, and at a very early age took her father's place at the pipe organ in a large Episcopal church of Toronto.

On July 18th, 1864 she was married to Nicholas Welch, with whom she moved to Churchillville, New York in 1865. After two years residence there they came to Michigan and settled in Gobleville. In 1888 they moved to Paw Paw where Mr. Welch died April 23rd, 1895. In September 1895 she was married to Leonard Crandall of Paw Paw with whom she lived until the time of his death on September 30th, 1914.

Mrs. Crandall was a life long member of the Episcopal church to which she was greatly devoted. She was a charter member of the Women's Relief Corps which organization she served as organist from the beginning. She was also a member of the Maccabee lodge of Paw Paw.

She is survived by a sister, Mrs. Carrie Balch of Morilton, Arkansas and one brother, A. J. Law of Detroit. She leaves also a large circle of friends by whom her loss is most keenly felt.

Funeral services were held from the house August 25th, Rev. C. H. Heaton officiating, and burial was made in Prospect cemetery.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to thank all the friends who so kindly helped during the illness and death of our dear sister and aunt Mrs. Mary Crandall, for the beautiful flowers and singing, and Rev. Heaton's comforting words.
